

DLIFLC Hall of Fame 2011 nominations open

Monterey, California – The Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center is accepting nominations for the DLIFLC Hall of Fame by August 1, 2011.

The purpose of the DLIFLC Hall of Fame is to honor the heroes of the Department of Defense language community who have contributed significantly to language and culture training.

The Hall of Fame consists of a permanent display in the DLIFLC Aiso Library on the Presidio of Monterey, with displays describing the stalwarts of the defense language community and their valuable contributions to improved language training and better employment of military linguists in the defense of our nation.

ELIGIBILITY

Any person who has made a lasting contribution to language training or military linguist operations in the Department of Defense is eligible for nomination to the Hall of Fame. However, to ensure that actions for which persons are nominated are of an enduring nature, and to prevent any appearance of impropriety, all actions must have occurred at least ten years prior to the date on which the nomination is submitted.

It is not required for nominees to be DLIFLC graduates, faculty, or staff of the Defense Language Institute. Nominees may be living or deceased.

NOMINATIONS

Anyone may submit nominations for Hall of Fame candidates.

Nominations are accepted year-round, however the next selections will be made during the month of August 2011 to coincide with DLIFLC's 70th Anniversary. The cutoff for consideration of a nomination for 2011 will be 31 July 2011.

Nominations that are not selected for induction will not automatically be considered again in future years. If a nominator wants to have a nomination reconsidered, he or she must resubmit the nomination.

Submissions should include the following:

1. Name, address, phone number, and e-mail of person submitting the nomination (in case the review board has questions or needs more information).
2. Name, address, phone number, e-mail of the nominee or a representative, and his/her relationship to DLIFLC, if any

3. Detailed justification for the nomination (maximum of 3 pages long)

Submit nominations in hard copy to:

Commandant
Defense Language Institute, Foreign Language Center
ATTN: Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations (DCSOPS)
1759 Lewis Road
Bldg 614, Rm 251
Presidio of Monterey , CA 93944

Submit nominations electronically to:

SELECTION PROCESS

Honorees are selected from among all nominations by a review board consisting of:

DLIFLC Commandant
DLIFLC Assistant Commandant
DLIFLC Command Sergeant Major
DLIFLC Provost
DLIFLC Historian
DLI Alumni Association President

Selection is by simple majority vote. In the event of a tie, the Commandant will cast the deciding vote.

This year the review board will convene during the first week of August. It will review all nominations submitted up to 31 July 2011. There is no minimum or maximum number of honorees selected each year.

Honorees selected by the board are notified in a letter from the Commandant. The list of all honorees will be published on the DLIFLC and DLIAA websites, and through appropriate news outlets (i.e., Military Times, Stars and Stripes, local newspapers).

INDUCTION

Honorees are invited to attend the annual induction ceremony, held in conjunction with the DLIFLC 70th Anniversary celebration on Nov. 5, 2011, to be held at the Hyatt Hotel in Monterey, CA.

Honorees or their representatives will have an opportunity to make remarks during the ceremony if they desire. However, attendance at the ceremony is not required for induction into the Hall.

Honorees receive an honorary Associate of Arts degree from DLIFLC. They will also receive a plaque attesting to their induction into the Hall of Fame. The induction ceremony will include the unveiling of descriptive displays (photos, documents, etc.) describing the honoree and the reason for induction.
